

A Celebration of Divine Love

You've recently been introduced to the Divine Love. You have been praying earnestly and experiencing all kinds of changes in your life. You have this uncontrollable urge to tell everyone you meet about the Love and the Truths that you have discovered. But for some reason, everyone you speak with either thinks you are crazy or they humor you until you go away. However, if you are lucky – if you strike up a conversation and it creates a soul to soul communication – then you sometimes experience Nirvana; well, maybe not Nirvana but you definitely feel all warm and fuzzy inside.

When we introduce someone to the Divine Love and we reach them on a soul level, the experience that results fulfills a longing that has been implanted into our souls. It brings happiness to our hearts in knowing that we may have played some small role in assisting a fellow human being come closer to God. The experience is not like anything else and we remember and look forward to sharing the Truths again.

This document was created to assist you in developing your Divine Love public speaking skills – communicating to others what you have experienced in the Love. There are suggestions on what to name your public outreach, how to introduce the topic of Divine Love, how to communicate the Truths, how to integrate Divine Love into your healing sessions, and even a sample introduction to the Love for your web site. I would like to introduce you to two souls who have an earnest desire to help their brothers and sisters in Christ. Nicholas and Zara have been involved in public outreaches for over 10 years. They have conducted many workshops, seminars, and have even been interviewed on television. They bring with them hands-on experience that they have generously compiled for distribution. It is our hope that these suggestions will help in creating positive experiences in sharing the Love.

With blessings and love,

Rev. Michael Nedbal

Teaching with Divine Love

My name is Nicholas Arnold, and I live in Melbourne Australia. I first found The Angelic Revelations of Divine Truth, Vol.1 in Los Angeles in 1989. Upon reading the book and understanding how the Truth works in relation to natural love and Divine Love, I knew quite clearly that the awareness of the Divine Love was needed to be made known in this world. I immediately set about introducing this awareness and the experience of receiving this Divine Love into the soul.

Upon my return to Melbourne Australia, I helped to establish meditation experience for the Divine Love, and began my workshops a few years later. During this time, there were a series of prayer nights and experiences with a core group of individuals, which were ongoing. All through this time, I was perfecting my art of learning how to teach the Truths of natural love and Divine Love. I had many conversations with many people out in life, all directed toward the practical way of living with the Father's Divine Love in a natural world. I have been asked by Michael to present a manual to help introduce you to the guidelines I have developed that have worked in the general public, through teaching and sharing and presenting how to become aware of Divine Love.

The following points are for gentle consideration.

Nicholas. December 23rd, 2002.

A Public Experience of Divine Love

- Firstly, I have found it to be very successful to introduce The Father as The Soul of God, and to teach that this is a “Soul to soul” relationship.
- Secondly, be sensitive to the needs of the individual.
- Remember, let the Father do the work. You may introduce the Divine Love; however, it is the Father who gives the Love. We simply light and guide the way.
- I have found it best not to use the word, “prayer.” People become immediately defensive and close down to this religious expression. People are far more receptive to the words: “From your heart, ask for the inflowing of Divine Love from the Soul of God”.
- It is paramount to let others experience the Divine Love in the way that it is best for them. It may not be your way; however, it will be right for them. You may pray three times a day, and others may ask for the inflowing of the Divine Love once a year.
- The natural love is a good love. The Divine Love is a good Love. Be wholesome about both.
- Sharing your own experience of Divine Love will speak volumes to others: not in attempting to overwhelm them with the Truth, but rather to assist them in drawing upon your life experiences to illustrate living a natural life with and without the Divine Love.
- The question I am asked the most is, “How do I experience this Divine Love?” Most people who ask this are drawn to the Love and the experience of asking and receiving It. It may take time for them to read the books. This may surprise you, but this does not reflect badly on the books, Jesus’ truths, or upon you. It is just simply an individual’s own experience.
- Be resourceful. Listen, ask questions, and find a common point of contact. Each meeting is a new experience of the expression of individual needs.
- Natural love loves power. Truth will eventually confront this essential limitation and condition. In these experiences, I have found it best to only give when asked. Learning, teaching and eventually experiencing the Divine Love is not a battle of wills, knowledge or competition. It is an easiness and acceptance of the soul. If not asked to be of assistance, be on your way and leave in the Love of the Father!
- Remember the meeting may only be about creating an awareness of the Divine Love and Its availability in the world today, not necessarily a direct experience of the Love. The information you have shared with this soul sows a seed of Truth and in this a need is fulfilled.

- Even though you know the books backwards, find your own voice. This individual effort will be real and tangible for others to hear.
- Follow the seasons of your own life. There are times to lead and there are times to follow; times of great activity and times of stillness and silence.
- Praying for the Divine Love down on the beach at sunset is a beautiful experience. Include nature and the beauty of it as settings for praying for God's Love when you can.
- There is a time in which Truth needs to be heard, irrespective of one experiencing the Divine Love. This is a moment when the Father needs the listener to hear His Truths. This may not be decided by the "teacher" at his or her discretion, but the "teacher" will be led to speak should this be required. However, the "teacher" must not speak Truth simply to win favor or to show his/her knowledge to be superior, but rather, in certain instances, it may be only necessary to speak to gently correct erroneous beliefs.
- Bear in mind that there is your own personal relationship with the Father and your public relationship with the Father. Discern and distinguish between the two.
- Light and Truth are two of the important and essential Attributes of the Father. Light is the illumination of the Love, and Truth is the structure which provides tangible workings of the Love. It has been my experience that people, especially creative people, are usually receptive and do respond to the Light. Other people, such as healers, respond to the workings of Truth. I have spoken both about the Light and about the Truth. This is very important because both deal with the dynamics of personality. Light and Truth, if effectively communicated and understood, can become an established philosophy in the world today.
- Everyone will have their own agenda where either or both loves are concerned. It is a fact of life. But most people I have introduced the Divine Love to ask, "What is in it for me?" Even though they may experience the Divine Love for a long time, they may still be inclined to put themselves first in their dealings with life.
- Your life experiences with The Father in Divine Love evolve as you personalize this relationship with Him. I have found that the experience between natural love and Divine Love to be the greatest teacher of all.
- Be respectful of other people's place in the world. You do not have to commit other souls to the Father. They commit themselves.
- You may have read the books and been entirely committed to the Father in your life and prayers. Most people you will meet will not be. Once you can really grasp and accept this, you will be free to engage and begin teaching about the Divine Love in a wholehearted way. You will be without condition and you will live without the pain and suffering of loss in the world.

- When speaking with people, the art of healing is a good place to begin a discussion. Most people are familiar, in this modern day, with well-being. It is from here that many roads lead, eventually arriving at the Divine Love of the Father. The Father's Divine Love is the greatest healer of them all.

Other Ways to Present the Divine Love

- Firstly, there is prayer for the Divine Love.
- I have found that to present meditation with Divine Love is effective in establishing groups. Meditation is more accessible and less confrontational to the beginner, and circumvents their past histories, fears or imperfect experiences.
- Part of our responsibility is to discuss the Divine Love in a comfortable way. If you use the words "Jesus" and "Father," unless those present have read the volumes relating to the Divine Love, it may well be that your turnout for the next meditation will only have you present. This is not a reflection on the Truth but rather being of service to Jesus and The Father, knowing that for many the Truth comes later. The actual experience of receiving the Divine Love is both primary and paramount. Once souls receive the Love, in time, they may ask and receive more Love, and invariably be in better condition to learn of the Truths.
- It is with humility that, in my discourses about the Divine Love, I always had copies of the Angelic Revelation of Divine Truth vol. 1 present to be looked over and purchased. They were never presented as the absolute or only way to begin life with the Father.
- In these presentations, be natural in word selection. In this way, communication and rapport is more easily established. I always encouraged this, for it is a reflection of the normality of living with Divine Love.
- Select a topic for discussion. Be creative, adventuresome and passionate. Involve humor and be jovial. I found that it was more practical for people to come to these meditations in the evening. The sessions each night usually ran for about an hour. Refreshments were served afterwards, where personal experiences were shared and a lot of Truth was revealed.
- A very effective means to involve everyone in these sessions was what I like to refer to as a "celebration" of Divine Love. These nights would consist of 20 minutes of praying for and receiving the Divine Love, followed by music, singing and refreshments.
- It may well be that after a time you develop a core group of individuals who love the Truth in all its forms. To establish a study group is really great fun.
- Perhaps the most difficult part of leading a meditation group for Divine Love is for you to be the initial speaker. All I can say is: "Practice makes perfect!"
- On some nights, a whiteboard was used for illustration. This was done in workshop fashion. Many people respond visually, and most love the whole experience of learning. On other occasions, the workshop idea is good for public demonstrations of spirit guides, healing, and any number of topics you wish to address.

- These workshops are best scheduled for 50 minutes, with a 10 minute introduction to the experience of receiving the Divine Love. Afterwards, it is good to ask if there are any questions. In my experience, very few were ever asked. However, as people left the room, many would approach me and say how wonderful the Divine Love is.

Experience the Divine Love

Dear friend, welcome to the experience of Divine Love. Having read the Angelic messages of Love and Truth and, upon further contemplation, if you desire to experience the Divine Love for yourself, here is a practical way to get started:

The Divine Love is available to you. Find a quiet place, relax, and close your eyes if you like. When you feel comfortable, ask in your own way, and from your heart, for the inflowing of Divine Love from the Soul of God into your own soul. Having once asked, rest and receive. The inflowing of Divine Love is like a cool summer breeze. Five to twenty minutes is enough time to begin. Enjoy the experience, for the Love that you receive today will be the same Love you receive tomorrow. The Divine Love never changes. Over a period of time, enough Divine Love will develop faith. Enjoy! For further information regarding the Divine Love, read Angelic Revelations of Divine Truth, Vols. I and /or II.

Healing With Divine Love

My name is Zara Borthwick and I am a professional healer currently working in Melbourne, Australia. I have been working as a healer since 1990, having read Angelic Revelations of Divine Truth, Vol. 1, in Los Angeles in 1989. My background is in tactile therapy, utilizing massage, shiatsu, essential oils and crystals. Living with the Divine Love has enabled me to gain insight into the workings of natural love. The following outline has been compiled from my experiences over the years of healing natural love with Divine Love, and teaching this to clients and students.

Happily, do I say, open your heart and soul to God's Divine Love and walk with the angels as the words of these pages may inspire the longings and yearnings of your heart and soul to be made whole, and to come to know and feel the Divine Love of our Heavenly Father.

I would like to thank Nicholas Arnold, Rod Barbey and Michael Nedbal for their kind patience along the way.

Healing Natural Love with Divine Love

- The Healer of souls is the Father's Divine Love. By Its very Nature and Origin of Soul, the Divine Love is the Healer that fits our souls perfectly. When we begin to recognize the purpose of our journey in life, we desire to learn more of love and to understand our experiences.
- Among its attributes, Truth can be healing. Also, it can be said that the absence of Truth can either cause or result in fear. As a room stays dark until illuminated by the light, let the Light of Divine Love illuminate your heart.
- Love is nurturing and Truth is comforting. Enjoy the experience of being comforted and nurtured in your prayers, in your experience of the Father and the Divine Love. It has been my experience that people can fear Truth. However, with Love the individual can learn how to live without fearing the Truth, and can live a life in love with Truth.
- The need for love is an inherent part of our lives. If we are unfulfilled, we are unhappy. When our need for love is fulfilled, we are happy and blissful. The Divine Love ultimately fulfills our need for love, for this is a longing of the soul.
- The inflowing of Divine Love often results in a wonderful feeling of peace.
- Divine Love flowing into a soul can also magnify and illuminate the need for healing. It has been my experience that people often do not feel worthy to receive the Divine Love. We as the healer must be patient and non-judgmental in natural experiences of life. After all, we have all begun our lives in natural love.
- People need to understand their life experiences with both natural love and Divine Love, because all loves teaches us about life's relationships.
- People know they have a physical need to be fulfilled. It has been my experience that the individual will seek a healer who facilitates a meeting of their needs, and to see the Truth of their needs. The healer can direct and guide these needs with love, and can introduce the individual to the possibility of asking for and receiving the Divine Love.
- Everyone has an inherent need and longing of the soul to be loved by the Father. The Divine Love is perfect and complete for the needs of each individual's soul.
- With regard to asking and receiving, some people can ask but cannot receive. Others desire to receive but cannot ask. And some are afraid to try either, although they often grasp the concept intellectually. This is a guide for the healer to understand where people are coming from in their experiences of love in their natural life and where the division lies. When the division is healed, and there is union, the individual can experience the joy of asking, experiencing and receiving in both natural and Divine Loves.

- Be clear about what you are asking for. If sincere, you are accepting responsibility for the Truth given and Love received.
- A life truth is responsibility. This ultimately leads us to being responsible for our experiences of the past, present and future. This is part of the healing experience.
- Always listen to the needs of the individual - within their words will be found the truth of their experiences.
- Healing can offer a peaceful time-out for the soul. During this time, one can re-center and recharge and feel reinvigorated. It is a time for the individual to be calm and to feel the Presence of the Father in this material world.
- Sadness can be transformed into joy with the Divine Love from the Father.
- Faith develops and builds in the soul from the Divine Love, transforming even the darkest moments into the brightest light. Let the experience of Divine Love shine on you and within you.
- Love and accept yourself when experiencing the Divine Love of the Father in prayer.
- Always respect the need for passages of time. Everything does not have to happen all at once. Time is often needed for individuals to integrate their experiences of love, life and healing.
- Let the river of Divine Love flow through your life. This is a lovely visualization that can be added to soothe a soul. Imagine lying down in a cool stream of Divine Love flowing from the Father.
- Healing also brings understanding into our lives and reveals our experiences of love. When we try to find the meaning of these experiences, we are trying to find the truths of our lives. This relates directly to cause and effect. Truth enables us to recognize and understand this relationship. It is in this way that, when truths are revealed, the workings of love are explained and the individual begins to feel happy, free and whole.
- Christ is the Spirit of Truth. The Holy Spirit conveys the Divine Love of the Father into the soul of man. Healing is about perfecting your natural love with the addition of Divine Love. There will come a time when natural love is perfected. The individual participates in this experience of healing with the help of The Father's Divine Love.
- Transgressions represent so much of the ills of the world. Many healings are needed to undo what has been done so that one can reclaim one's own individuality. This explains a lot about the evolutionary experience of mortal life, and how we can best be free of such conditions. Truth, love, acceptance and forgiveness bring an understanding to the soul in these life experiences.

- Healing involves two very essential factors: acceptance and forgiveness. These two attributes of love enable individuals to release themselves from conditional aspects of life. Some people can accept an experience but are unable to forgive. Others can forgive but are unable to accept. Some can accept and forgive another, but are unable to accept and find forgiveness in themselves. We need to be able to do both. We need to be able to accept and forgive ourselves and others. The greatest teaching example of this is: "Forgive them Father for they know not what they do." This statement illustrates the complete understanding and acceptance of this Truth.
- Being "spiritual" can often negate the physical. Living with Divine Love embraces all aspects of life. The physical body, the spirit body, and the soul of an individual are each viable and intricate aspects of living and loving. To be whole, one must be aware of the needs of them all.
- Self respect, and to take the responsibility to respect oneself, leads to respecting others. When this remains undone, it can create loss of judgment, sadness and anger, ultimately leading to transgressions. "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you." This statement reveals a working Truth of love.
- It takes time for life to work itself out. Because we are finite, healing is finite. But while the Father's Soul is eternal, the Divine Love is perfectly fit to enter the finite soul of man. It is truly significant that, with the effect of the Divine Love's entrance into the soul, one can be made whole whilst living in the flesh. An endless spiritual quest is not required to be healed. This can be achieved within one's finite time here on Earth.
- Healing is about the individual and not the healer. Individuality, in all its expression and in all its experience, is about living love. The soul reflects this. The greatest individual expression of living love is that one can love and be loved by the Father and, in this Gift, love one another.
- The greatest miracle in life is the Divine Love. In the experience of Divine Love, the past will become resolved, and the future will not be conditioned by the past, enabling you to be completely committed to the present, living freely in the Faith of Divine Love.

Prayer for Divine Love

Our Father, who art in heaven, we recognize:

That Thou art--art all holy and loving and merciful, and that we are the children of Thy care and not the subservient, sinful and depraved creatures that our false teachers would have us believe.

That we are the greatest of Thy creations and the most wonderful of all Thy handiwork's, and that we are the objects of Thy great Soul's love and tenderest care.

That Thy will is that we become at one with Thee and partake of Thy great love which Thou hast bestowed upon us through Thy mercy and desire that we become, in truth, Thy children--and not through the sacrifice and death of any one of Thy creatures, even though the world thinks that one Thy equal and a part of Thy godhead.

That Thou will open up our souls to the inflowing of Thy love, and that then will come Thy Holy Spirit to bring into our souls, this, Thy love in great abundance until our souls may be transformed into the very essence of Thyself; and that there may come to us faith--such faith as will cause us to realize that we are truly Thy children and that we are one with Thee in very substance and not in image only.

Let us have such faith as will cause us to know that Thou art our Father and the bestower of every good and perfect gift, and that only we, ourselves, can prevent Thy love changing us from the mortal to the immortal.

Let us never cease to realize that Thy love is waiting for each and all of us, and that when we come to Thee with faith and earnest aspirations, Thy love will never be withholden from us.

Keep us in the shadow of Thy love every hour and moment of our lives and help us to overcome all temptations of the flesh and the influence of the powers of the evil ones, who so constantly surround us and endeavor to turn our thoughts away from Thee to the pleasures and allurements of this world.

We thank Thee for Thy love and for the possibility of receiving it, and believe that Thou art our Father--the loving Father Who smiles upon us in our weakness and is always ready to help us and take us to Thy arms of love.

We pray thus with all the earnestness and longings of our soul, and trusting in Thy love give Thee all the glory and honor and love that our finite souls can give.
